Dear Colleague,

I'm writing to let you know I'm re-standing for election to Labour's NEC and to ask for your support and your CLP's nomination.

A little bit about me:

- Labour Party member since age 16
- A founder and Vice Chair of Sikhs for Labour
- Trustee & Director of anti-racism/fascism charity & campaign HOPE not Hate
- Secretary of my Unite the Union Branch
- Active school Governor
- Board member of West Midlands Strategic Police & Crime Board appointed by the Labour PCC
- Central Council member of Socialist Health Association and Treasurer of the West Midlands SHA
- Elected to Labour Party NEC in April 2020

I'm a committed campaigner and I'm Labour through and through!

Why am I standing?

The Labour Party MUST win the next General Election.

I'm a Labour Party member of 32 years and was proud to be elected to Labour's NEC in April and I want to continue the work we've started to create a united movement behind Keir Starmer and bring to an end the last few years of divisive factionalism.

I believe in a broad-church, election winning Labour Party in which all traditions are respected and ALL our members have a role in building an organisation that is second to none, ending racism, antisemitism and discrimination, ensuring a robust, fair and independent complaints system, fixing the governance deficit, putting members back in charge of policy making and candidate selections and rebuilding trust with voters who left us.

Since being elected to the NEC, I have published a report every month detailing my activities as a NEC member in addition to reports of NEC meetings - you can find these at www.gurinder4nec.com.

Nominations for the NEC elections are open and close on 27th September. I'd appreciate if you could help ensure your CLP considers my request for nomination and I'd love to hear from you and, if possible, to speak with members by joining any online meetings you may be holding - please do get in touch!

As part of the 'Labour to Win' team, I'm supporting team-members Luke Akehurst, Johanna Baxter, Terry Paul, Michael Payne and Shama Tatler and, in addition, Ann Black, Theresa Griffin and Paula Sherriff.

I bring with me my background as a long-standing and dedicated party activist, a passionate equalities campaigner and my independent minded commitment to a member-led democratic Labour party. I hope I can count on your support.

Yours sincerely,

Gurinder
